Hi, my name is Lisa Cinar. I'm a lover of all stories told in pictures, be it picture books, comics, graphic novels, ebooks, apps or whatever else you can think of. So far having written only children's books and one page comics, this is my very first longer comic. It's a little bit of a sad story, but it just kind of came out that way.

I had started the story way back in the summer of 2010 but never got to coloring it until just recently. The original artwork for the comic is 11x17 inches and thus it's quite a strange size to print. Because of this and also lack of time and money I have decided to just publish the comic as a free pdf. I learned a lot from making it and really got a kick out of it. I hope you will too! Also one more thing. I made the comic thinking I would print it out and thus it looks best if you read it as 'two pages up'. Ok, that's it. ... yay internet!

WE JUST WANTED TO KNOW WHAT'S IN THE SACK!

OF YOUR OWN ACTIONS!

I DID NOT INTEND TO KILL HIM.
I MERELY DID IT TO DEFEND
MY MOST VALUABLE POSSESSION

WHAT'S IN THE SACK!?

WHAT IS IT THAT IS SO VALUABLE?

WE JUST WANT TO KNOW!
WE WON'T TAKE IT!

SO WHICH ONE

FOR ONE OF THEM
TO BE HONEST.
TO CONFESS THAT
